OGDEN'S SPECIAL STRIKES ENGINE AND IS WRECKED

Cook, Burned to Death.

Robert M. Ogden, Prof. Farnum, and Dr. McKelway Among Number.

GREENVILLE, S. C., April 29.-A special train bearing Robert C. Ogden and a party of prominent New Yorkers, rea party of prominent New Yorkers, turning from Columbia, S. C., was turning from Columbia, S. C., was tweeked near here today. W. W. Canat & o'clock tonight. It is the wish of his brother. Daniel Lee, and other relaand burned to death.

Several of his guests were more or less slightly injured. The injured are:

C. B. Wilcox, uning scalp wounds.
D. R. Rohns, dining car conductor; scalp wounds.

J. R. Hunter, engineer of the wrecked special; left leg broken and scalp wounds.

The special was running into the city at a rapid rate of speed on the Southern railroad when a switch engine with some cars backed out on the main track. In the collision which followed the engines were wrecked and the baggage cars and two dining cars were piled up in a heap and set on fire. The accident occurred shortly before 8 o'clock. The first of the five stateroom cars was lifted from the track. It caught fire, but everyone made their escape.

None of the passengers were seriously injured, their injuries being merely superficial. A good deal of the heavy baggage was destreyed. Some of the train hands were badly hurt, particularly the fireman.

Collided With Switch Engine.

The train, which was composed of ter cars, left Columbia this morning for composed of one baggage car, a smoker, two dining cars, six compartment cars and an observation car. Mr. Ogden, who is a member of John Wanamaker's firm, had just been elected president of the Conference for Education in the South.

News of the wreck was received here and a wrecking train and a party of physicians were dispatched at once to the scene.

Those in Ogden Party.

Those in the party were former Mayor Seth Low, of New York; Edward M. Shepard, of New York; Charles B. Aycock former governor of North Caro C. Mitchell, of Virginia; John Graham Brooks, Dr. Waliace Butterick Dr. Edward T. Devine, Dr. A. S. Draper new State commissioner of education Prof. Henry W. Farnum, of Yale Dwight Kellogg, the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving, St. Clair McKelway, Bishor McVickar, Dr. Edward Knox Mitchell Robert Treat Paine, George Foster Pea body, and the Rev. Dr. H. B. Frissell, of Hampton Institute. Four of the ten cars were burned.

Some of the injured were pinned under

Superintendent of Transportatio Seale, of the Southern Railway, said at noon today that his reports deny that any cars had been burned in the Green-ville wreck, and fail to state that anyone had been killed or burned to death His first message from the scene was to the effect that:

"At 7:55 a. m. at Greenville, S. C., Og

THE WEATHER REPORT.

The lake region depression has move eastward rather rapidly and extended to the southward, so that it now occupies practically the whole of the Atlantic Coast districts. Pressure is relatively high on the north Pacific Coast and over the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

and over the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

Rain has fallen quite generally in the lake region, the Ohio valley, the lower Mississippl valley and eastern Texas.

Colder weather prevails in the western portion of the lake region, the middle Mississippl valley, and in North Dakota. An area of colder weather has appeared in the extreme Northwest, with temperatures below freezing in North Dakota and northern Montana.

The weather will clear tonight in the Middle and South Atlantic States, but there will be rain tonight and Sunday in the South Atlantic States.

It will be colder in the lower lake region, the Ohio valley, and Middle Atlantic States, and somewhat lower temperatures will prevail in the South.

TEMPERATURE.

THE SUN. Sun sets today......Sun rises tomorrow.....

LEE MAY SLEEP BENEATH OAKS ARLINGTON ARLINGTON

Only Fatality That of Details of Funeral Await Arrival of the Widow.

PROMINENT MEN INJURED BODY AT THE HOSPITAL

Children and Relatives Hastening to Washington For Obsequies.

Arrangements for the funeral of Gen his brother, Daniel Lee, and other relatives, however, that the famous Con-federate cavalryman be buried at Alex-

Robert M. Ogden, secretary to Robert C. Ogden; fracture of the right leg; contusions and scalp wounds.

Prof. Henry W. Farnum, of Yale University; right arm broken and severe contusions. versity; right arm broken and severe contusions.

Mrs. Farnum; scalp wound and internal injuries.

Mrs. J. G. Throp, Cambridge, Mass., daughter of Henry W. Longfellow; scalp wounds and shock.

Dr. St. Clair McKelway, editor of the Brocklyn Eagle; cuts and bruises about the head and face.

Bishop W. N. McVickar, of Rhode Island, shock.

Capt. John F. McCoy, tourist agent of the Pennsylvania railread, scalp wounds.

W. C. Kershaw, electrician, 15 Bond street, Jersey City; scalp wounds.

C. B. Wilcox, dining car conductor; scalp wounds.

D. R. Bohns, dining car conductor; scalp wounds.

D. R. Bohns, dining car conductor; street, Jersey City; scalp wounds.

D. R. Bohns, dining car conductor; scalp wounds.

prother of Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee, and Mrs. Mann Page, an intimate friend, have gone to Lynchburg, Va., where they will meet Mrs. Lee, who left Fort Ogle thorpe, Ga., last night.

Son in Philippines.

Mrs. Lee is accompanied by her eldest daughter, Mrs. Rhea, and her youngest daughter, Miss Virginia Lee. It may be that Mrs. Lee will telegraph from Lynchburg instructions to Dr. Mason as to the care of the General's remains, as she may find it more convenient to meet them in Alexandria or Richmond, and not come to Washington at all. No word had been received from Mrs. Lee at a late hour this afternoon.
Lieut. Fitzhugh Lee, jr., the General's oldest son, is in the Philippines with the Fourth Cavalry. His second son, George, s a lieutenant in the Seventh Cavalry and his second daughter, Mrs. Brown, i also with the Seventh Cavalry, her hus band's regiment. George Lee and Mrs this city, where the party was to be received by the mayor The train was tified of their father's death, and have left for Washington.

May Lie in Arlington.

At the War Department the opinion is generally expressed that there is some probability of the body being buried in will be held in abeyance until the arrival of the general's family in this city tonight, Should it be decided to have the interment elsewhere, the body will be escorted to the station with full military honors if the family so desires, The question of the Arlington interment and the military escort will rest entirely on the wishes of General Lee's

Expressions of Sorrow.

Many were the expressions of regret Not only the men with whom he had from officers of the United States Army as well, did these expressions come. Providence Hospital was filled with caliers this morning, every one of whom was anxious to offer services to the amily of General Lee

'His death is a great loss," said Col. "His death is a great loss, said con-nomas Smith, of Warrenton, who was lifelong friend of General Lee. "Not ily during the war did he render Vir-nia valuable service, but up to the lay of his death he labored in the in-rests of his mother State. No braver, lore honorable man than Fitzhugh Lee for lived.

Bright, cheerful and courteous, he as a fine example of the type of man at has long been dear to the heart o ery Virginian. His courage wa untless in war nor did it fall hin hen the greater struggle of peace came lis whole history is full of deeds tha effect credit upon the illustrious family rom which he sprang."

Praise From the Army.

From officers of the United States rmy come nothing but praise for the departed soldier. His military record Cuba was made too recently for them ot to be familiar with it. That he was perfect soldier they all agree.

Whether he is buried at Arlington, the ome of his illustrious uncte, or at Rich-pond or Alexandria, full military hon-rs will attend the funeral of the hero

Telegrams of regret and condelence to tembers of his family are pouring in com all parts of the country, and from very direction come expressions of the ## End a Peaceful One.

The passing of the famous ex-Confed-..5:05 right, was peaceful. Until 9 o'clock h was resting comfortably, and his friends

IS ALWAYS FOND OF A SEAT ON A HORSE'S BACK BOWEN RECALLED SECRETARY TAFT, WHEN NOT "SITTING ON THE LID,"

SECRETARY TAFT FOND OF RIDING

Goes Horseback Into Coun- Acting Secretary Taylor's Warrant for Grandmother try Almost Daily.

Action Precautionary.

lying on Injunction Against

To Shut Off Coal Supply.

May Appeal to President.

President Roosevelt may be appealed to to end the strike as he did in the case of the anthracite miners. A resolution asking the President to step in troops to Chicago will be introduced in the Chicago Federation of Labor at according to labor leaders, will brought to a head speedily.

labor struggle in Chicago.

special meeting tomorrow. This plan the Federation to sign a petition applying to the President to use his good of fices in compelling the employers to arbitrate. If this is not done it is said will result in laying plans for a genera

A package of sawdust, neatly done delivery service of two State street de-

Agent T. J. Ryan of the Department package was neatly rolled up in the store of Charles A. Stevens and handed Store Delivery Drivers' Union.

partment stores, according to Business caused a tie-up of the wagon

as their only protection.

NO TROOPS YET

INDEFATIGABLE WORKER DISTURBANCES ARE RENEWED TORTURE IS THE CHARGE

Finds That Equestrianism Keeps Him Chicago Employers, However, Are Re- Little One Chained in the Yard Sevenin Trim to "Sit on the Lid."

Secretary Taft, whom President Roosevelt left "sitting on the lid" takes horse-back rides into the country almost daily. ers are relying today upon the Federal Perkins, is alleged to have meted out to injunction granted by Judge Kohlsaat little Eva Lyles, her twelve-year-old He is an indefatigable worker and the exercise he finds in horseback riding keeps him in good physical trim and is a relaxation from his arduous labors in connection with the supervision of three departments of the Government. He is President ad interim; Acting Secretary of State, ad Secretary of War.

Colonel Edwards His Companion.

Every afternoon about 5 o'clock Secretary Taft, usually accompanied by Col. Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, mounts his horse at the Seventeenth street en-He is an indefatigable worker and horse at the Seventeenth street entrance of the War Department, and together they go galloping out on the country roads.

Secretary Taft is a splendid rider, and though he weighs nearly 250 pounds sits his horse with grace and ease. He had much horseback riding experience in the lippines, where as governor general used to go out on inspection trips to surrounding towns.

One of the Secretary's favorite horses a handsome gray charger, powerfully ailt and fleet of foot. With this horse built and fleet of foot. With this horse under him the Secretary likes nothing better than a fast twenty or fifteen-mile ride through the country around Washington. Colonel Edwards, who accompanies him, is also a devotee of equestrianism, and together they enjoy many outings of this character.

What Interested Root.

Secretary Taft tells a story on himsel in connection with equestrianism. When he was governor of the Philippines his health broke down, and the President and Secretary Root were much con insisted that he should take a vacation and keep them posted on his condition. Mr. Taft went up into the mountains back of Manila, where he speedily improved. One of his bulletins the War Department about his health

"Much improved. Rode eight miles on Back went the reply from Secretary Root, who, with all his attention to the w. has a sense of humor:
"Glad to hear it. How is the mule?

CHARGES PREFERMENT OF M'KAY CREDITORS

Many distinguished persons have called at the hospital since General Lee was taken there. In addition to Surgeon-Majors Kern, Edie, and Mason, who were sent to the train yesterday by Surgeon-General O'Reilly, there were his brother, Daniel Lee, Major Holmes Conrad, Major-Robert Hunter, Cazenove G. Lee, K. E. Lee, jr., Col. Thomas Smith, of Warrenton, Va., Harry St. George Tucker, General Lomax, Major Kean, U. S. A., Surgeon General O'Reilly, Dr. Mason, and many other men prominent in official and private life.

Find a Perseful One the will of the late Col. Nathaniel Mc- the meeting of the Federation tomorrow tions against his estate, which, it is stated, amount to about $100,090.

Mr. Pell further says he has instituted suit against the legal representatives of Colonel McKay to recover $38,213.57, which, he claims, is due him. He now asks the court to appoint a receiver to collect the rents accruing from the real estate left by Colonel McKay and preserve the fund in connection with the remainder of the estate for the benefit of the creditors.

Henry E. Davis and Stuart McNamara are named as counsel for the petitioner.

to a driver to be delivered to Marshall Field & Co. The driver refused to take the bundle and was discharged. Another driver was asked with the same result. Then other drivers quit.

The same package was taken to the (Continued on Fifth Page.)

CHAIN AND BLOCK TO CHILD'S ANKLE SENT TO CHICAGO

of 12-Year-Old Girl.

teen Successive Days, Say Neighbors.

Most cruel is the treatment Mrs. Mary CHICAGO, April 29.-Chicago employ-Judge Kohlsaat little Eva Lyles, her twelve-year-old granddaughter

From the child's ankle Sergeant Anderson, of the Anacostia police station, filed a chain attached to a twenty-seven pound block of wood late yesterday afernoon. The lock and chain is said to have been placed on the little girl's leg by the grandmother.

The police say she admits she adopted this means to keep the child in the yard of her home at 154 Harrison street, Anaostia. Neighbors of the woman say that yesterday was the seventeenth day the child has been in the yard with the block of wood attached to its limb.

A Public Charge.

The shutting off of Chicago's coal supply will be the policy of the strike This afternoon Eva and her brother eaders, who believe that this is the and sister. Mary and William, aged nine and eight years respectively, were turnbest way to win the struggle. Deliberate and carefully laid plans have been ed over to the Board of Children's Guarmade to tie up deliveries of coal all over dians permanently. They were brought into the Juvenile the city. No troops have been sent yet from Fort Sheridan, although the 400 Court. After hearing the testimony regulars there are ready for immediate Judge Kimball decided the children service. The commandant at the fort needed better care. Mrs. Perkins testified in the case. She declares that official orders from the scene of war have not been received. He could not say when the troops will be sent. At the United States subtreasury said the mother of the children died more than a year ago. The tather, she sent. At the United States subtreasury it was explained that no call for troops had been sent to Washington from that office. The chief clerk said:

"We have no demand for troops and we won't unless we are interfered with What the Acting Secretary of the Treasury actually did was to make the preliminary arrangements for getting the Chicago subtreasury the protection of the regulars in case such a guard should become necessary." says, is a loafer and refuses to work when he can get it, preferring to reman drunk twenty-four hours each day. She says he ran away so as to keep from supporting the children and is now in Maryland a short distance from Ana-mail bag repair shop on C street near Sixth, and did all she could to provide for the children and bring them up properly, but she did not have much time to spend at home.

lution asking the President to step in and force the employers to arbitration and so avert the necessity of bringing der sixteen years of age, as she is said troops to Chicago will be introduced in to have done in the instance of her ju-

Business men not directly involved with the Employers' Association in the strike may be asked to join hands with less shoes. She wept when Sergeant Anderson exhibited the block of wood which she had been dragging around th yard.

Judge Kimball was told that the girl was turning into her thriteenth year and was only in the first grade at The three children were left in the ouse by themselves. Little Mary did he houseworn, while her sister was chained.

Judge Kimball said the children deserved the best care, but did not think they could get it with the grandmother.

Sergeant Anderson's attention was called to the child esterday afternoon while passing her home. He saw about a dozen children playing in the yard Several had the big block of wood in

(Continued on Page Five.)

TO FACE LOOMIS WITH ACCUSATION

Must Substantiate Scan- Actress Believes Prosedalous Charges or Quit Service.

Censured For Reporting Prosecutor Rand and Mr. Gossip and Using Cable To Do So.

issued orders recalling Minister Bowen extent this morning and was quite cheerfrom Caracas.

William W. Russell, of Rockville, now ed minister to Venezuela. Mr. Bowen is ordered to report in Washington at once. His retention in the diplomatic service depends upon whether how she felt, Nan replied: diplomatic service depends upon whether he can substantiate the charges made by him against his superior, Francis B. Loomis, First Assistant Secretary of State.

Loomis he made charges to Secretary Taft that Mr. Box . en was responsible for the publication of the story alleging that he, Mr. Loom-is, was involved in scandals in Venezue-

President Roosevelt will decide whether Mr. Bowen was justified in undertaking to make charges against his superior. If his action is approved Mr. Bowen will probably be sent to Chile to take charge of the post now vacant there. Failure to prove these charges will result in Mr. Bowen's dismissal.

Smirches Loomis' Record.

Mr. Bowen, American minister at Caracas, reported to the State Department that he had reason to believe the record of his superior, Mr. Loomis, who preceded him as minister to Venezuela, was not clean.
Several weeks ago, before President

Personal Letter to Taft.

These charges were made by Mr. Bowen in a personal letter to Mr. Taft. The Secretary decided he could not con-The Secretary decided he could not consider them personally, as ne was acting head of the State Department, but that they must be officially investigated. He sent them to President Roosevelt.

Why, Coggins came to see the set that they are $50, and told me how sorry he was, and said: 'Now, you see what you got for not marrying me.'"

Nan then gave a strug of her shouldsent them to President Roosevelt.

The charges did not include that con-Continuing, she said: "Coggins asked Secretary Taft received the charges back from the President with instructions that they should be shown to Mr. Loomis and an answer in writing required of him. cerning the ten-thousand-dollar check.

the defense into a trap during the testimony of Mrs. Smith, Mr. Patterson said he could not see where such a trap during the testimony of Mrs. Smith, Mr. Patterson said he could not see where such a thing occurred. "Mr. Levy," said Mr. Patterson, "is a very capable man and macy, but never actually made a request

W. W. Russell, who will succeed Mr. Bowen, and who will take up the negotiations in the famous asphalt controersy, enjoys the confidence and esteem f legation at Caracas previous to being sent to Bogota, and is, therefore, acquainted with conditions in Venezuela. It is announced that John Barrett, It is announced that John Barrett, minister to Panama, will be transferred to Colombia to take Mr. Russell's place. There will be an opportunity to send Mr. Bowen to Chile should he retain the Administration's good wishes. That post is now unoccupied. It may be, however, that Chile will not welcome such an appointment.

charge of violating section.

District code, which provides a heavy fine or imprisonment in a penitentiary for torturing or maltreating a child under sixteen years of age, as she is said to have done in the instance of her juvenile charge.

Will Be Arrested.

Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given instructed Anderson to take the woman into custody. She will be arrested when she returns to her home from the mail bag repair shop, where she returned work after testifying in court.

Work after testifying in court.

Is now unoccupied. That Chile will not welcome such an appointment.

According to present indications Mr. Loomis' friends that Herbert W. Bowen was responsible for the publication of the stories in which woman into custody. She will be arrested when she returns to her home from the mail bag repair shop, where she returned work after testifying in court.

The presumption of the stories in which the publication of the stories in which the substantiated it will be enough in itself to result in Bowen's dismissal or else in a severe reprimand even if he should make good in what he has undertaken to prove.

The publication of the stories in which will be arrested it will be enough in itself to result in Bowen's dismissal or else in a severe reprimand even if he should make good in what he has undertaken to prove.

The publication of the stories in which will be enough in itself to result in Bowen's dismissal or else in a severe reprimand even if he should make good in what he has undertaken to prove.

The publications Mr. Loomis' friends that the former trial the witnesses for the defense were more numerous than those for the prosecution.

Expects Acquittal.

Mr. Levy and others of the accused chorus girl's counsel, on the other hand, are just as confident of an acquittal.

Mr. Levy declared today that the one reason for not calling any witnesses failed to make out its case. According to Mr. Levy, all the conditions are fav-

STUDENTS AS ESCORT FOR BODY OF GOODELL

AMHERST. April 29.-All places of ousiness in Amherst were closed yester day while the faculty and students of the Massachusetts Agricultural College attended in a body the funeral of the bearers, and the students escorted the body to the cemetery.

$1.25 to Baltimore and Return, $1.25. Sunday; tickets good on all trains ex-cept Congressional Limited, and good for return until Sunday night.—Adv. revolver was purchased, can have any

NAN NOT WORRIED OVER TESTIMONY OF HER SISTER

cution Has Wrecked Its Case.

METHODS DISAPPROVED BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT

Levy Express Their Satisfaction.

Secretary Taft, acting upon instructions from President Roosevelt, today had recovered her spirits to a great Nan and her sister Julia, were seen minister to Colombia, has been appoint- in the corridor of the Tombs on which their cell is located. They were reading a large bunch of letters which "I have just been discussing the testi-mony with her and we are not at all afraid of anything she said on the stand. I really think Rand was more amusing than serious, Did you notice how mad he got when Julia called attention to the date on the pawn tickets naming the month of October? He fairly flung the tickets on the table and was just as mad as he could be."

Testimony Did No Harm.

Speaking of her sister's testimony, Nan said:

"One would naturally be a little ner-vous on the stand, especially if badgered as she was, but she didn't do me any harm, I think. Did you ever see such a shameful exhibition as when Rand offered Julia her freedom if she would turn against me? But Midget loves me too much to do me any harm, don't you,

Several weeks ago, before President Roosevelt departed on his hunting trip, Minister Bowen cabled that it was the current gossip of the clubs and in the street in Caracas that President Castro of Venezuela held a check made out to Mr. Loomis by the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company.

This drew from Secretary Hay a rebuke to Mr. Bowen he should not have reported Mr. Bowen he should not have reported gossip, and should not have sent it by cable.

President Presently it resident too much to do me any harm, don't you, Midget?" throwing her arms around her sister's neck and patting her upon the back.

"You bet I do," replied Julia; "and nothing I have said could hurt you."

"What do you think of that letter I wrote to Leslie Coggins?" continued Nan. "It was only a foolish note from a foolish iri, just the kind of a letter a gjrl writes once in her life, and snake in the grass and now I believe it. If he wasn't a sneak he would never have given that letter to Johnny Millin. Why, Coggins came to see me last sum-

Loomis and an answer in writing required of him.

Mr. Loomis has not yet submitted his answer. He is allowed a reasonable time in which to reply.

The summoning of Mr. Bowen to Washington, though not his removal, was requested by Mr. Loomis. He desired that the charges be made in person to the President.

The fact that the Administration has decided upon Mr. Bowen's removal from Caracas is an indication that the Loomis. Bowen episode is regarded of so serious a character that it would be against a character that it would be against it imony of Mrs. Smith, Mr. Patterson to the president is the control of the me what Multing out of him and tell me what Multing out of him and teli me what Multing out of him and tell me what Multing out of him

Patterson, "is a very capable man and has conducted this case satisfactorily.

Confident of Conviction. The district attorney's office is confident that Nan will be convicted of homicide in one of the degress. They will be perfectly satisfied if the jury of the Administration. He has only finds her guilty of manslaughter in the been a few months as minister at the second degree. That would mean some Colombian capital. He was secretary sort of punishment for Nan, and what is more important to Mrs. Young and other members of the Young family, the stigma of suicide would be removed. Mr. Rand has absolute confidence in his ability to destroy any theories of ng argument of the defense, and will to Mr. Levy, all the conditions are fav-orable to his client. The presumption of innocence must cling to Nan until This evidence, he asserts, the prosecu-tion failed to produce. He also claims that Mr. Rand failed to show that 3. Morgan Smith purchased the revolver with which Young was killed, and this failure, following the positive declara-tion made by the prosecutor in his open-ing speech, he argues, will be hard to failure, following the positive declaraovercome before the jury

Mr. Levy scoffs at the idea that the ewelry which was presented to the court yesterday, to the great consterna-Pennsylvania Railroad, Saturday and tion of Mrs. Smith, and which was